Dear Parents/Carers,

Amelia's Rainbow Christmas Charity Song

I am very excited to announce that our choir has been asked to take part in recording a brand new Christmas song, with all proceeds going to local charity - Amelia's Rainbow.

Amelia's Rainbow is a Dorset-based charity supporting children with serious, chronic, life-limiting, or terminal illnesses.

Local Composer Chris White has written an original Christmas song entitled 'Christmas at our Place'. The song will be professionally recorded by Vocalize, a community choir from Verwood, and Cadence, a Ringwood based 6-piece band, and will include the voices of local school choirs on the refrain.

'Christmas At Our Place' is written to evoke warm and fuzzy feelings about Christmas time. The idea behind the song was mainly about a parent who, due to the busy pace of life, is sometimes less than attentive towards their child. The sentiment is one of reparations and the desire to be together, away from the invasive distractions of everyday modern life, especially the distraction created by smartphones. The children's refrain reinforces the desire to be present.

Our choir will be learning the children's refrain in choir rehearsals throughout September, and we will be welcoming Chris to our school on Monday 5th October to record us for the track and music video!

The track will be released on YouTube, Spotify, Apple Music, Amazon, and more on 16th November, just in time to get us all in the Christmas spirit!

All of our choir members will be taking part in this exciting opportunity. You will need to give permission for your child to be recorded for the music video, which will be shared publicly. If you do not wish for your child to appear in the video, they can still take part in the audio recording but you will need to notify us of your wishes in the attached google form.

Please complete the google form no later than Friday 11th September:
